NCAA is a non-profit, 501(c) 3 organization

About NCAA

NCAA is a non-profit institution certified by the Department of Education. It has been established to provide a safe and loving Christian home for children facing difficulties in public schools. Its main purpose is to address the needs of individual students, develop human capacity, increase self-reliance, and empower children to obtain a Christian education and a brighter future.

NCAA welcomes:

- Children of single parent homes,
- Wayward teens lacking motivation,
- Special needs children with ADHD, Autism, Dyslexia and other learning disabilities.

NCAA enables students to grow spiritually, receive their high school diploma through small classroom size and individualized learning. Transportation will be available for the Nashville area at a minimum charge.

Accredited Institution

You can make a great Christian impact in the life of a child by giving a:

- Quarterly or yearly scholarship,
- One time donation,
- Time on volunteer basis for educational activities and school bus driving.

NCAA invites you, parents and friends to get involved in spreading information on NCAA's openings among families, churches and public schools' staff, so that more disadvantaged youth may obtain a Christian education.

NCAA opens its doors to all visitors that would like to know more about its ministry and to make a difference in the life of a child and a single parent home.

This is where YOU can help!

With your support NCAA will be able to:

- assist disadvantaged children to get a sound all-round education,
- strengthen children's moral values, such as honesty, team work, obedience, gratitude, social politeness and respect for the environment; as well as
- meet the needs of special students in a Christian home atmosphere.
